

English Ivy

Native to:Europe and Western Asia
Minimal temperature: −2 °C
Length: 20–30 m
Season: August-September
Benefits:
-English ivies are one of the top 10 air-purifying plants, according to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA)
-Research shows that ivy can help relax the airways and reduce coughs.
This is especially helpful for people with:

Boston Fern

Native to:Europe and Western Asia
Minimal temperature: -1.1°
Length: 91.44cm
Season: March to August
Benefits:
-These plants act as humidifiers and can help to restore moisture in the air so they are perfect for those who suffer from dry skin and other cold weather problems.
-Boston ferns are have the ability to purify indoor air

Sambucus nigra f. laciniata

Native to: UK and much of Europe
Minimal temperature: -40°
Height: 2-4m
Season: March to August
Benefits:
- Elderflower is the flower of a tree. An extract of the flower is used to make medicine.
- Elderflower is used for maintaining healthy sinuses and treating sinusitis.

Aloe Vera

Native to: Arabian Peninsula
Minimal temperature: -1 c°
Height: 60cm
Season: Summer
Benefits:
- Accelerates the healing of burns and wounds
- The gel contains most of the bioactive compounds in the plant, including vitamins, minerals, amino acids and antioxidants.

Mint

Native to: North America
Minimal temperature:15 c °
Height: 5cm
Season: Year around
Benefits:
- Cure Allergies & Hay Fever as well as treating Treat Asthma
- Reduce Depression & Fatigue

Strawberries

Native to: Mediterranean region and western Europe north to western France and Ireland
Minimal temperature: -6 c °
Length : 243cm
Season: January to November
Benefits:
- Rich source of antioxidants
-Improves immune function

W
I
N
T
E
R

S
U
M
M
E
R